Chief Patrick Conmay, State of Nevada Department of Public Safety Nevada Highway Patrol

Patrick J. Conmay began his career in law enforcement as a patrol officer with the Los Angeles Police Department. During his tenure, he moved through the ranks working a variety of assignments including burglary, auto theft, narcotics enforcement and homicide. When he retired he was assigned as the officer in charge of Robbery Homicide division's Homicide Special Section, responsible for high profile murder investigations in the City of Los Angeles.

In 2000 he moved to Nevada and worked for a short time for the Nevada Department of Health and Human Services, Division for Aging Services investigating complaints of elder abuse. In 2001 Pat moved to the Department of Corrections as the Inspector General, where he managed and directed the Department's statewide criminal and administrative investigations.

Kerry Bubolz, President, CEO Vegas Golden Knights

Kerry Bubolz is the first President and Chief Operating Office of the Golden Knights. In his role, Bubolz oversees all business aspects of the franchise.

Daniel King, American Patrolman

Danny King is a retired police use of force investigator that specializes in controversial use of force and representing officers accused of excessive force. He has reviewed thousands of real-world use of force incidents. He's also created thousands of use of force and officer-involved shooting training scenarios. Danny consults privately on use of force cases and travels teaching for his company, American Patrolman.

Mike Boone, Blue to Gold

Michael Boone is an active training and counseling officer at the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department Academy. As a 19-year veteran of the department, he is currently one of the lead instructors of Search and Seizure and a member of the LVMPD Search and Seizure Committee. As a member of the committee, he is responsible for staying current on court decisions, 4th Amendment issues, development of new lesson plans, and pushing out new training to the department. Michael also teaches Interview and Interrogation, Miranda, Defensive Tactics, and various other subjects at the academy. Michael has a great passion for the 4th Amendment and is an instructor with Blue to Gold Training.

Michael has worked in numerous assignments, with a strong focus on investigations and training. After patrol, Michael worked as a Field Training Officer, then moved into preliminary investigations with an emphasis on violent crimes. Michael then promoted to the rank of narcotic detective, where he was the affiant of numerous search warrants and arrest warrants. After five years as a detective, he was chosen to become a Federal Task Force Officer with the Drug Enforcement Administration. As a TFO, he was the case agent of many Title III Affidavits, Search Warrants, Arrest Warrants, Pen Registers, and Tracker Warrants while conducting local and international investigations into drug trafficking organizations.

Michael was the lead case agent in which a local drug trafficking organization was completely dismantled. Michael was also assigned to the Clark County Gang Task Force, in which he oversaw cases involving violent suspects with gang ties.

Michael has specialized training as a Defensive Tactics Instructor, Crisis Intervention Team, Gang Response Officer, Nevada POST First Line Supervisor, ODV Narcotics Test Instructor, and CPR Instructor. Michael is also a part of various special projects to include the editing and continual revision of The Criminal Offense Handbook, which is a cliff notes version of the Nevada Revised Statutes that the department utilizes daily. Michael was also part of developing and instructing a domestic violence investigations class to the supervisors of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. Michael has also taught domestic violence classes at the Southern Desert Regional Police Academy.

Michael has received the Unit Meritorious Award (2006), US Air Force Office of Special Investigations Law Enforcement Team of the Year (2009), Unit Exemplary Award-LVMPD Academy (2018), Exemplary Service Award-Criminal Offense Handbook (2018), Exemplary Service Award-Domestic Violence Training (2019), and multiple letters of commendation throughout his career.

Travis George, Creative Planning

Lt. Travis George (retired) is a member of Creative Planning's Practice Development team, helping extend the firm's services into specialized industries and other trusted networks where clients have distinctive needs, such as aviation, law enforcement, dentistry, professional sports and entrepreneurship. Lt George also leads a team of Operation's Specialists responsible for the onboarding of new client's, and the daily care and maintenance needs of existing clients. With additional efforts in various public speaking forums, he delivers financial wellness education, and works with government employers on retirement plan improvements.

Drawing on nearly three decades of law enforcement experience, Travis proudly supports Creative Planning's law enforcement and first responder specialty practice. Prior to Joining Creative Planning, Travis retired from the Belton Police Department as division commander after 23 years of service. In that role, he led a large and multi-disciplined team, including uniformed patrol, traffic and criminal investigation divisions, and served as the department crisis intervention team liaison, a Belton Cares board member, a homeless outreach coordinator and a training and development coordinator. Travis also served as an airport police officer with the Kansas City Aviation Department and as a full-time school resource officer in the Blue Valley Unified School District.

Travis earned his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Central Missouri and his Master of Arts degree from Lincoln University. Prior, he graduated from both the Kansas City Regional Police Academy and the Missouri Police Chiefs' Command College. Travis holds several instructor designations obtained both during and after his career in law enforcement.

Travis and his wife, Angie, share six children ranging in age from pre -teen to adult. When not working, Travis has enjoyed coaching middle school football, high school baseball and high school wrestling.
